SARUPATHAR COLLEGE

FIELD STUDY OF THE DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY

The Department of History, Sarupathar college went for a field study to Sibsagar and Charaideo on 21st of February, 2024. The prime aim of this excursion was to study the architectural remains of the Ahom dynasty that scattered in the districts. Visit to the museums of Sibsagar district and the Maidam of Lachit Barphukan were also a part of that educational tour. A total of twenty eight students from all the semesters took part in it. The tour was guided by the Assistant Professor Mr. Sandhan Hazarika and Bipul Das. The first sight of the visit was FIELD STUDY OF THE DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY the Maidams of Charaideo. After spending half an hour in that place the students left for Kareng Ghar, one of the grandest examples of Ahom architecture. The next place of visit was Sivadol, the temple that dedicated to Lord Shiva. After taking lunch at a hotel nearby the temple, the team went for Rangghar. Talatal Ghar, Joydol and Joysagar Pukhuri were the last places that observed by the students. Nurturing some beautiful memories the team reached Sarupathar College campus at 11 pm.
